LATEST NEWS

- Welcome back at last! It was a long 18 months where we were forced to cancel classes and we are glad we have finally been able to resume aikido classes again. Thank you for your support and patience during the enforced shutdown due to Covid-19.
- Lateness: Please try to avoid arriving late, you should arrive 10 minutes before the class is due to start if you arrive after the class has started, we may not be able to let you participate. Also remember to bring a drink.

GRADING

Sunday 12TH DECEMBER 10:00AM - 11:30AM

The next junior grading will be held at ALNS (Portsmouth) on Sunday 12th December. Spectators are welcome.

Members will be invited by letter to the grading, if it is felt that they are ready (based on session count, attitude, technical knowledge, consistent training, ability to uke/ukemi).

There are 3 mon (stripe) tests between each coloured belt test.

* Please remember that not everyone will be ready to grade at every grading examination ****

MON BADGES

We would like all members to wear the club badge (MON) on their training uniform. These are available to purchase at £5 each.

All monies from the sales of goods and gradings are put back into the club to pay for Dojo Hire and Equipment. Please remember that your monthly training fees only cover the cost of your insurance, membership to the British Aikido Board, hall hire and equipment/running costs. All instructors are volunteers, with their own work and family commitments, and receive no payments at all.
